

The new dog sport that is sweeping the country!

- ✚ All non-aggressive dogs can participate regardless of size, breed, or age.
- ✚ Minimal equipment is needed
- ✚ Training can be done indoors and at home. this sport is ideal for Idaho winters.
- ✚ Class participants can be teenagers to retired and anyone that just want something really fun to do with their dog
- ✚ K9 Scent Games helps shy dogs gain confident and all dogs to "work" off excess energy and have fun doing it.
- ✚ K9 Scent Games utilizes the dogs natural desire to sniff out things by teaching them to look for treats or toys and then for specific target odors.
- ✚ Local competitions will be held next year at High Country Shepherds and national competitions are already available to those wishing to really get involved in this new sport.

Beginning August 14th in Shelley, ID

6 Weeks of classes.....$120.00

Call 208-357-7973 to register.

Instructor Ann Christensen has been training detection dogs for 18 years